

Pat Wasielewski/WMST 227

Jones C

Thursday, February 15, 2007

9:30-11:00am

Goal:

Introduction to library and outside resources useful in finding biographical and contextual information on women sociologists.

Agenda:

- 1) Introduction to library webpages--Library Catalog, Library Services, Databases links.
- 2) Library Catalog:
- 3) Databases: Sociological Abstracts, JSTOR, Gale Literature Resource Center, Electronic Journals, and WorldCat.
- 4) Access to Annual Review of Sociology (UCR has print of 2006), Sociological Abstracts (HM1 .S67 Ref),

Library Catalog

bart, pauline (keyword)

guy-sheftall (keyword)

#4 The Politics of Women's Studies—the women she thinks are important speak to what's important to her.

Gale Literature Research Center

barbara ehrenreich

beverly guy-sheftall

Full Text Electronic Journals

Annual review of sociology—

Collins, patricia hill—3 results

#3 “Talking Back to Sociology”—Highlights Patricia Hill Collins—Conclusion: both Stacey & Risman cited.

#1 “Feminist Theory & Sociology”—Significantly about Collins

Sociological Abstracts (Print) & Sociological Abstracts (CSA)

CSA Sociological Abstracts—can find who cites a person's work

“Judith Stacey”—What kind of articles cite Stacey? Who cites Stacey—women or men?

JSTOR

“lenore weitzman”

WorldCat

Sandler, Bernice (author)—83 records

Sandler, Bernice (subject)—3 records, only 2 relevant but not accessible

Handouts:

Passwords

Accessing Journal Articles

CRAAP Test

Research Guide

An interesting project: look up these sociologists as authors in our library catalog: a) do we own any of their books b) where are they located (call number=subject area)

Signs

“barrie thorne”